

I-CAR Gold Class Professionals®

Program Requirements for Insurance Professionals

Recognition for Insurance Professionals

The Insurance I-CAR Gold Class Professionals® business designation offers training for professionals in the Auto Physical Damage Appraiser (APDA) role and recognizes businesses at two levels:

- Office, Business Location, or Department Level
- Corporate or Company Level

Training Timeline - 2012 and Beyond

In 2012, I-CAR is transitioning from awarding points to awarding credit hours. Generally, three (3) credit hours will replace one (1) point for a regular I-CAR class. The typical online course that was one-quarter (.25) point will be one (1) credit hour on average.

In 2012, businesses will qualify for the Insurance I-CAR Gold Class Professionals® designation in two ways:

Earn 15 credit hours (previously 5 points) per APDA staff member to achieve Gold Class status or 6 credit hours (previously 2 points) to maintain a designation.

– OR –

100% of all locations has 60% of their staff Platinum or 60% of overall staff is Platinum in 2012 and each subsequent year.

2013 and Beyond

The requirements for 2013 and beyond reflect what percentage of staff must have the Platinum designation for a business to retain the Gold Class status.

2013: 70% of APDA staff have achieved Platinum status in I-CAR ProLevel 1

2014: 75% of APDA staff have achieved Platinum status in I-CAR ProLevel 2

2015: 75% of APDA staff have achieved Platinum status in I-CAR ProLevel 3
